Small-Town Bachelor by Jill Kemerer

1. Small-Town Bachelor is set in a fictional small town on a lake in Michigan. Have you ever lived in a small town? If yes, what did you like about it?
2. Claire is the maid of honor in her sister's wedding, and Reed is the best man. A tornado forces the bride and groom to postpone the nuptials. What is the craziest wedding mishap you've witnessed?
3. Reed avoids his father, but as he spends time with Claire, he realizes he wants to be part of a family. Do you think men or women are more likely to avoid their parents when the relationships are strained?
4. Otters live in Claire's backyard. Do you want to take care of a pair of adorable otters in your yard, or is that just me? ☺
5. Claire realizes that holding onto anger toward people who have hurt her is keeping her from fully embracing life. Forgiveness, to her, is genuinely praying for God to bless them. What does forgiveness look like to you?
6. What was your favorite part about the book?
7. What would you have liked to see more of? Less?

Thank you for choosing Small-Town Bachelor to read!

If you enjoyed the Sheffields and Lake Endwell, look for Unexpected Family in September 2015. Tom Sheffield gets the surprise of his life when his ex-wife shows up on his doorstep. Bryan's story will be available in 2016.
