Her Small-Town Romance by Jill Kemerer

1. In Her Small-Town Romance Jade Emerson moves to Lake Endwell, Michigan, a town her grandmother told her was a place dreams come true. If you could live anywhere, where would you go?
2. Bryan Sheffield carries guilt from his divorce. It forced him to analyze his motivations for getting married in the first place. Could you identify with his desire to avoid relationships, while at the same time craving them?
3. Bryan and Jade share a strong Christian faith, and both felt that God had His hand in bringing them together. Have you ever felt God's hand in your life?
4. Family relationships play a big role in this book. Jade feels she can't please her mother, and Bryan keeps secrets from his family. Do family relationships affect you or a loved one even as an adult?
5. Jade has a deep-seated phobia of being near trees. What are you deathly afraid of?
6. What was your favorite part about the book?
7. What would you have liked to see more of? Less?

Thank you for reading Her Small-Town Romance! Find out what happens to Sam Sheffield as he recovers from his injuries in my November 2016 release tentatively titled Yuletide Redemption.
